Dan Smith Watercolor Workshop

April 9th—13th

“Internal/External: Pushing the Limits with Watercolor Portraiture

The Charles H. Taylor Arts Center (CHTAC)

4205 Victoria Blvd, Hampton, VA 23669

Tuition: $350

Entry Deadline: March 19, 2012

The Virginia Watercolor Society is pleased to announce that the 33rd Annual Exhibition Juror, Dan Smith, will be teaching a 5-day watermedia portrait workshop, from Monday, April 9th through Friday, April 13th from 9:00am to 4:00pm. Flexibility will be given to those participants desiring to work with still life, landscape or abstractly.

The workshop is open to all VWS members and will be held at The Charles H. Taylor Arts Center, upstairs in the classroom. A maximum of 25 artists will be admitted to the workshop. The deadline for registering is March 19, 2012. Workshop artists will be selected on a first come, first served basis following the registration deadline.

During the workshop, Dan will integrate art history with art making styles and philosophies. He will compare and contrast ancient, traditional, and modernist styles of portraiture and painting in general. Capturing a likeness will be combined with expressive experimentation to reveal an internal spirit. From an objective to a subjective record, participants will be challenged to think, act and see in new ways.

A supply list, map and a list of local hotels will be provided upon acceptance. A waiting list will be maintained in case of cancellations. Refunds will be provided only if there is a replacement for reservation cancellations. If you are not selected, your check will be returned.
